

10 Possible Indicators of Radicalized Person

1. The person suddenly abandons family members and friends.
2. In some very rare occasions of their family visits, these individuals criticize and scold them for their disrespect or reverence behaviour (e.g. accusing father with a glass of wine consuming, accusing mother with bad names not to properly cover her head, etc.)
3. They don't participate in activities in which they enjoyed and been occupied before, such as sport or community associations.
4. They believe they have found their own liberation path or religious enlightenment and those who are not following the same path are less worth.
5. Toward others who are not support or bond to their believes they show a growing hatred and intolerance.
6. This includes rejecting fellow (religion, political party, political movement, community) group and it's members who refuse to accept violence.
7. They refuse to debate or engage with ideas that oppose their own.
8. They turn their back to the way of life which they lived before.
9. Most of the time over the day they sped surfing internet especially it's violent anti-government (or anti religious) websites.
10. They develop obsessive patterns of behaviour by sacrificing themselves for the goals of awesome catastrophic scale, involving destruction and/or damage.